

Addison, Pleasant River

A Very Special Property

What could be more idyllic than brightly colored wild flowers blooming in a field of blueberries sloping gently down to the river's edge? What could be more magical than views that extend west for the sunsets, south towards the ocean and north to the charming little coastal village of Addison? And what could be more special than a Permit by Rule already in place that allows for a set back of only 75 feet? Ideal for kayak and canoe enthusiasts.
